The steamer Hawaii of the Wilder line takes out a heavy cargo of general merchandise, machinery and lumber for ports on Hawaii today.

The Mikahala brought down a large quantity of Kona and Kau oranges. A crowd of natives, Chinese and Portuguese made things lively on the wharf this morning, buying and selling the fruit.

The I. I. S. S. Mikahala from Hawaii and Maui came in about 9 o'clock last night. Besides 400 bags sugar, she brought 652 bags coffee and the usual amount of other island produce. Captain Simerson of the W. G. Hall returned as a passenger from the "big island."

The Hawaiian iron bark Diamond Head (formerly British bark Gainsborough) sailed at noon from Brewer's wharf. She is bound for San Francisco in ballast, where she is to have her bottom permanently repaired. Her crew is made up of natives, Japanese and whites. Some of the white men are deserters from foreign vessels. Captain Ward sailed the vessel out himself without aid of the tug-boat or a pilot, having a stiff, fair wind. Information for Tourists.

A passenger by the last Colonial steamer was met on the dock by a Milesian American friend, who resides in Honolulu. As the pair waited to have the newcomer's gripsack scrawled over with chalk marks by the Customs Inspector at the gate the stranger remarked to his friend "Do you 'ave much rain 'ere?" RAINIER me boy, gallons of it, just come up to the Anchor Saloon where they keep it always, clear and cool. We'll just be in time for lunch too and that's the only place in town where they serve it up in proper style with a glass of RAINIER BEER to equilibrialize the solids. They went!
